Report Hospital for Sick Children, 1907 (Classic Reprint)

By Hospital For Sick Children

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report Hospital for Sick Children, 1907 When the silent hands that travel round the dials of the clocks in the wards of the great charity in College street had registered midnight on the last Sabbath in September, that event marked the close of the thirty-first year of the work of the Hospital for Sick Children. Year in and year out the work has gone on apace. The calendar does not register the days as they pass away more faithfully than the workers care for nigh a thousand sick little ones who find haven every year within the walls of this charity. The workers are always at their posts. - The blue-gowned nurse flitting from cot to cot with kindly word and gentle hand; the Resident in snow-white linen moving through the wards with a lingering look to see that orders are obeyed; the active staff prescribing for the little ones admitted, and discharging those whom the Hospital has restored to health; the Secretary and his staff watching business details; the Lady Superintendent and her help-meets...
