Sustaining relations to the church of Christ now rendered somewhat peculiar, duty to his cause demands from us an explicit statement of the grounds of our secession. We believe free discussion to be the duty of every rational being. It is the acting out of the command Prove all things. It is inquiry after immutable truth, whether embodied in the word, or hid in the works of God, or branching out through the relations and duties of man. We are bound to conduct this search, wherever it may lead, and to adopt the conclusions to which it may bring us. And, whereas, the single object of ascertaining truth is to learn how to act, we are bound to do at once, whatever truth dictates to be done. This duty of discussion and action is not conferred by human authority, and we have no license to resign...
